

WORSHIPPING TOGETHER

Worship Notes

Looking ahead, we look forward to hosting several guest preachers over the summer months when James will be away. The Reverend Jane Sullivan of Living Waters Presbytery, Minister for Congregational Support, will be with us for three Sundays: June 24th, July 22nd, and July 29th. On July 1st we will be fortunate to hear from our own Joanne Scofield, a candidate for ministry. As always, if you have any concerns or celebrations to share with us around worship at RHUC, please speak to any member of the Worship Committee: Anne Dunn, Anne Leyton-Brown, Craig Lee, Dawn Moon, Dominick Shelton, Harry Ramsaran, Joan Verner, Linda Clark, Rev. James Ravenscroft, Barry Peters, or me, Sandra Loughton, Worship Committee Chair.

Do you ever look at the small print on the back of the Sunday bulletin? The last item in the information box says, "Please turn all cellphones and other electronic devices to silent."

Recently, some new information was brought to the attention of the Worship Committee by Craig Lee, one of our committee members. He was told by a colleague that pandemonium ensued at a hospital in Hamilton when cellphones went off loudly and en masse due to a provincial Amber alert. You can imagine what chaos and disturbance that caused at the hospital. The same thing could happen during one of our worship services if people have their cellphones turned on. It was noted that even if your phones are on silent or vibrate, they could still go off loudly in the case of an emergency message or Amber alert! We realize that if it's a provincial safety warning about the weather, for example, that we would want to hear about it and let the congregation know. In that case, several people will have their cellphones turned on to silent or vibrate and the information could be relayed as necessary to the minister or other worship leader and then be conveyed to the congregation.

As such, we are asking that if you feel comfortable, please turn your cellphones and other electronic devices off during the service. We realize that, at times, people are waiting for an important call or need to be reached urgently by family members, so having the phone on silent or vibrate is necessary. We are not supposed to have our cellphones turned on during movies, theatre performances, and concerts, weddings or funerals, so why should our worship services be any different?

After the Canada Day weekend, if you have any questions or concerns regarding worship services please speak to a member of the Worship Committee or to Rev. James Ravenscroft. I will be available again in mid-August. The members of the Worship Committee are as follows: Anne Dunn, Anne Leyton-Brown, Craig Lee, Dawn Moon, Dominick Shelton, Harry Ramsaran, Joan Verner, Linda Clark, Barry Peters and Rev. James Ravenscroft. My term as Chair of the Committee will end on September 1st and a new Chair has not yet been appointed.

Thank you for your cooperation. The Worship Committee

HOSPITALITY & WORKING FOR JUSTICE

Minute for Mission Called to be the Church

In Guatemala, our gifts for Mission & Service support the ministry of the Fraternidad de Presbiteriales Mayas (FPM), or Women's Network of Maya Presbyterians, which provides Indigenous women in the area with microcredit loans so they can set up their own businesses and become economically independent. One group FPM supports is called Nuevo Esperanza (New Hope). Located just outside Quetzaltenango, the women in this group make chocolate and operate a bakery and a small restaurant. Guatemala has one of the largest Indigenous populations by percentage in Latin America. Argelia Poz, Executive Director of FPM, says it is important to work with Indigenous women to improve their families' economic wellbeing and to strengthen the voices of women in church and society. If Mission & Service giving is already a regular part of your life, thank you so much! If you have not given, please join me in making Mission & Service giving a regular part of your life of faith. Loving our neighbour is at the heart of our Mission & Service.
